Universität
Marburg

- Hessen's oldest and the world's first Protestant university
- Focus on Natural Sciences, Life Sciences and Liberal Arts
- First Nobel Prize for Medicine awarded to a Marburg professor
- Internationally renowned medical faculty
- Intensive promotion of young scientists
- Teaching excellence at the cutting edge of research
- "Other towns have a university, Marburg is a university"

Marburg

- Lively university town with historical flair
- Labyrinth of cobblestone streets and a medieval church
- Well-preserved half-timbered houses and a famous castle

With one look at Marburg's picturesque charm I fell in love. This small university town has been more than I ever could have hoped for as a foreign exchange student.
